

VOLUNTEER

Everyday people can make a difference! You have the potential to enhance lives and help others lead richer and more meaningful days. Many times people don't volunteer because they just don't know where they are needed, what kind of volunteers work would interest them and where to go to get that information.

Even the loveliest village on the plains needs volunteers and here in the heart of Dixie there are opportunities for everyone.

Some of the opportunities include:

- Impact
- Project Uplift
- The Big Event

You may not be able to do everything...-

-but you can do everything you can

Everyone can be great, because everyone can serve.

-- Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

IMPACT

IMPACT is Auburn University and the City of Auburn's central resource for volunteer opportunities. IMPACT provides students the opportunity to volunteer throughout the week and special one-time volunteer opportunities. Volunteers can work around their schedules and select from various volunteer opportunities.

IMPACT currently coordinates volunteer opportunities with ten different community service agencies in the Auburn-Opelika community. The following are locations of service:

Lochapoka Elementary

- Story Book Farm
- Parkerson Mill Creek
- Humane Society
- Community Market
- Lochapoka Elementary
- Joyland Day Care Center
- Reading is fundamental
- Azalea Retirement Home
- East Alabama Food Bank
- Monarch Estates Retirement home

PROJECT UPLIFT

Project Uplift is an organization whose main goal is to help children develop constructive happy lives so that the delinquency rate in our county decreases. Project Uplift is governed by the Lee County Youth Development Center's board of directors and various other voluntary contributors. After a one time training session and a year commitment you can volunteer to see a youth once a week. A rewarding experience a sure fire way to make in impact on the life of another person.

THE BIG EVENT

The big event is an annual event that takes place in Auburn/ Opelika. It is well advertised and easy to get involved in. Students have the opportunity to volunteer with a group of friends or an organization. A few of the locations include Habitat for Humanity, Boys & Girls Club, Food Bank, Story Book Farms, Camp ASCCA, nursing homes, and several other cleaning, painting, and construction jobs.
